FOR SELLING A QUART WHISKEY

Paul H. McConnell, Proprietor of
Court House Drug Store, is
Arrested Today on Affidavit

SIGNED BY ISAAC MESSMORE

Messmore Drinks Whole Quart And
Causes Disturbance at Manilla
Sheriff Cavitt Called

Paul H. (Doc) McConnell, proprietor of the court house drug store, was arrested today on a charge of selling liquor illegally. The affidavit was signed by Isaac Messmore of Manilla and was filed in the circuit court.

McConnell was arrested on charges of a similar nature several months ago and the cases came to trial last June but one did not stick and the second was dismissed.

It is charged that McConnell sold Messmore, who is given to becoming intoxicated, a quart of whiskey Tuesday evening. Messmore drank the whole quart and went home.

He created a disturbance at home by brandishing knives and threatening his family, which resulted in Sheriff Cavitt being called. The sheriff arrested Messmore and Wednesday evening Messmore pleaded guilty to the charge of public intoxication in the city court and was fined $1 and costs, amounting in all to $11, which he paid.

Prosecutor Stevens visited Messmore at the jail yesterday and Messmore stated readily that he had purchased a quart of whiskey at the Court House drug store. Messmore told the prosecutor that he did not know McConnell and that McConnell did not know him, and that he did not sign any statement that he wanted the whiskey for medical purposes.

Messmore got half the people out on the streets by his trouble-making Tuesday night, it is stated. He ran his wife and son-in-law, Ezra Baker and Baker's wife out of his home by threats and flourishing knives as if he would carry out the threats.

McConnell was arrested on two different charges for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquor last spring. The first case came to trial June 21, 1915, according to the criminal docket, and because of the failure of the evidence, the court withdrew the case from the jury and found the defendant not guilty. A man said to be a Muncie, Ind., traveling salesman was the prosecuting witness in the case.

One June 30, 1915, the second case against McConnell was dismissed on the motion of Prosecutor Stevens for the lack of evidence.

SECOND TRIAL OF HARWICK SUIT ON

Widow of Man Killed Near Here by
Interurban Seek Damages After Two Suits Failed

ONE LOST; OTHER WITHDRAWN

The second of the case in which Mrs. Joseph Harwick, whose husband was killed by an interurban car east of here in 1912, is seeking damages from the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company, is being held in the Morgan circuit court at Martinsville. The widow first filed suit in the Rush circuit court, but it was withdrawn and never allowed to come to trial by the plaintiff. Later Mrs. Harwick moved to Indianapolis and a similar suit was brought and tried before Judge Orison. The court gave the jury pre-emptory instructions to find for the traction company, which the jury did and the case was thrown out.

However, attorneys for the plaintiff filed an affidavit that they had uncovered new evidence and asserted that they had a new material witness, and were granted a new trial. The case was sent to Morgan county on a change of venue. It developed yesterday that James Yazel of this city was the new plaintiff's witness, but it is said he made an excellent witness for the defense because he testified he saw Clifford Jarvis of this city at the scene of the accident with a lantern. The defense contended Jarvis was seated on the front end of a coal car being pushed by a freight car and held a lantern and that Harwick should have seen it.

GERMANY MAKES A FEW CONCESSIONS

Consents to Arbitration of Frye
Case Involving Attacks on Conditional Contraband.

ADMIT NO TREATY VIOLATION

(By United Press.)
Washington, Sept. 23.—Germany made concessions regarding attacks on American ships carrying conditional contraband in a note bearing on the William P. Frye case received from Berlin and made public today by the state department.

The German government consents to arbitration of the loss of the Frye and names experts to reach an agreement as to the pecuniary loss but does not acknowledge that any treaty was violated in the sinking of the Frye. The note suggests settlement of this disputed point by Hague arbitration.

WATSON GIVEN A MIGHTY OVATION

After Speaking in Morning at State
Love Feast, he is Called Back
by Crowd in Afternoon.

TALKS ON EMANCIPATION DAY

Local Republicans Attending Say
People Who Attended Ox Roast
Here Still Comemtn on it.

Republicans from here at the state-wide Republican love feast at the state fair grounds Wednesday reported that the Republicans from all over the state were still talking about the ox roast here a week ago Wednesday. The general impression has gone broadcast throughout the state that a crowd was never handled better and was never served with more care than the one at Rushville.

Another feature of the meeting in Indianapolis was the remarkable ovation given James E. Watson, of this city, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

Mr. Watson was the last speaker on the morning program before all of the crowd had arrived. When he arose to speak, the immense crowd likewise arose as one man and cheered him for several minutes.

When he had appeared on the program in the morning, it was naturally understood that he would not be introduced in the afternoon along with other candidates because there were so many and the time was limited.

Directly after the "burgoo" feast at noon, State Chairman Will H. Hays, the permanent chairman of the meeting, spoke and was followed by Paul P. Haynes of Anderson, former secretary of the Progressive state committee, and Oswald Ryan of Anderson, formerly identified with the Progressive organization in the eighth district.

Chairman Hays then began introducing candidates. Those for governor were first and those for senator next. All during the afternoon, say local Republicans who were there, were repeated calls for Watson from the crowd. When William L. Taylor concluded his speech, the crowd took up the call for Watson. Even while the candidate for governor was speaking the meeting was interrupted by Watson enthusiasts and Chairman Hays, after the uproar had subsided, said that the program had been made out by the Columbia Club and would have to be followed.

The calls for Watson became so insistent after Taylor's speech that Chairman Hays asked if Watson was in the audience. He had not been on the stage all afternoon. He was finally found back of the stage out of sight of the audience and when he appeared, he was given another mighty ovation.

In a brief speech Watson declared the men who support the Republican party do so because they believe the party to be right and because they believe the Democratic party to be wrong. To be a Republican, he said, means to be in favor of a protective tariff, and to be in favor of a merchant marine and sound mind.

He declared that the Democratic party leaders "believe on thing one year and another thing another year." Watson reviewed the Democratic party's advocacy of numerous reforms, all of which dwindled from time to time until now there is nothing on which the party can tie for a party slogan. He declared that Bryan has been discredited, and facetiously wondered whose

SAYS SIMILAR CLAIMS PASSED

Secretary City Board of Health
Says Council Has Allowed
Money For Disinfecting.

IN TUBERCULOSIS CASES

Calls Attention to Clause in Law
Which Makes it Compulsory
For City to Pay Bills.

Dr. E. I. Wooden, secretary of the city board of health, said today that the city council had already paid four claims for fumigation in cases of tuberculosis, as provided for in the state law—claims identical to the ones the council held up Tuesday night for investigation before they were allowed.

Dr. E. I. Wooden called attention to the fact that the law passed by the last legislature makes it imperative for the city health officer to fumigate in case a person dies with tuberculosis or in cases where tubercular patients are removed from a house.

He called attention to the fact that there had been nine deaths from tuberculosis in Rushville since the state tuberculosis act was approved March 5, 1915 and that one of those—Harry Lakin—died of the date the law became effective. Dr. Wooden said he had not yet been supplied with a copy of the acts of 1915 and was not familiar with the law.

Dr. Wooden said the house where the wife of Omer Isaac died from tuberculosis was never fumigated because the case slipped by the board. The first case of fumigation was at the house where M. E. Willis lived at 638 West Seventh street.

He most emphatically asserted that the council had already paid four claims made legal by the law and could not understand why the council held up three claims under the same law when they were just as legal as those previously allowed.

Dr. Wooden also corrected another misimpression concerning the law and cited the statute as proof. The understanding seemed to be that the city, county or township, as the case might be, should bear the expense of disinfecting only in cases where the family was not financially able to do so. Dr. Wooden showed today that the law provides for the expense in the following manner:

"All expenses of such disinfection shall be borne by the city, town or county in which the aforesaid apartment, house room or premises is located."

Dr. Wooden said he wanted the people to know that the health board had been alive to the situation and the demands of the law all the time. He called attention to the clause which provides that the health officer shall fumigate not only houses where tubercular patients die but also homes from which tubercular patients are removed. Dr. Wooden said one of the claims held up by the city council Tuesday night was for the disinfection of a house from which a person suffering with tuberculosis had been removed.

Dr. Wooden called attention to the clause which makes it unlawful for property owners to rent property where a tubercular patient has lived until it has been properly fumigated by the health officer. The law even goes so far as to prescribe exactly what the health officer shall use for disinfectant.

The health official pointed to another stipulation of the law which makes it compulsory for physicians to report all cases of tuberculosis under their observation to the health

(By United Press.)
Chicago, Sept. 23.—Judge John O'Connor today issued to the Chicago Teachers Federation an injunction restraining the board of education from putting into effect its recently adopted rule whereby teachers were forbidden membership in any organization affiliated with organized labor. An appeal will be taken, it was said.

BOY SUCCUMBS TO BLOOD POISONING

George Stamm, Age Nine Years, Expires at Sanatorium Here Result of Accident.

WAS RUN OVER BY A BICYCLE

Master George Stamm, age nine years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stamm of Glenwood, died at the Sexton sanatorium this morning of blood poisoning developing from an accident when he was run over by a bicycle.

His knee was badly injured and when signs of blood poisoning were seen, he was brought to the sanatorium, but little hope was ever held out for the boy's recovery.

The body was removed to the parents' home today from Wyatt's undertaking establishment and the funeral will be held in the Glenwood Methodist church Saturday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock, conducted by the church pastor, the Rev. Daniel Ryan.

Besides his parents, the youth is survived by five brothers and his grandparents. He is also survived by a great grandmother, Mrs. Bart, of Tipton, Ind.

The boy was recovering from the injury when he rode a horse and the wound was opened again. The accident happened about six weeks ago and he was removed to the sanatorium here about two weeks ago.

CARTHAGE PLANT SELLS FOR $60,000

Receiver Edgar N. Hill Files Final
Report in Circuit Court—R. N.
Hill, Trustee, Purchaser.

DAVIS CASE ENDS SUDDENLY

The Carthage plant of the United State Board and Paper company has been sold to Rowland H. Hill, trustee, of Carthage, for $60,000, according to the final report of the receiver, Edgar N. Hill, former manager of the plant, which has been made a matter of record in the circuit court here. The receiver was appointed last spring on the petition of the Central Savings bank.

The report shows the appraised price was $57,600 and that the price paid by R. N. Hill, trustee, was the highest bid and was in excess of the appraisal value. The sale included all real estate and personal property belonging to the corporation except the cash on hands and account and bills receivable.

The case of John S. Davis for breach of warranty against Edgar and Rosa M. Fritch, Willard H. and Anna E. Amos and Homer and Fannie Powell came to a sudden termination this afternoon when it was dismissed by the plaintiff at his costs. The suit started this morning and was being heard by a jury.

WATCHED COUNT ALL NIGHT LONG

E. H. Foullois, Cripple, Says Ballots
Did Not Agree With Tallies and
He Demanded Recount.

PROGRESSIVE CLERK TALKS

Says he Was Told if he Did Not
See What Was Going on, he
Would Get Paid—Bell Trial.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 23.—How a cripple stayed up all night watching the primary returns in the seventh precinct of the tenth ward rather than allow a fraudulent count was told on the witness stand in the election conspiracy trial of Mayor Bell today by Edwin Henry Foullois.

The witness, age fifty-four, appeared much older. He walked with a cane. His evidence was given in positive tones.

"After about 100 Democratic tallies had been made for the county treasurer returns, I wanted to be convinced the count was fair and I made them count the ballots. When I found the ballots did not agree with the tallies I put the ballots back in the box and stayed with the box all night," declared Foullois. "In the morning when a man came whom I knew I sent him for the election commissioners and a thorough count was made."

Foullois was not cross-examined.

Edgar T. Bohall, a Progressive clerk in the tenth ward of the thirteenth precinct, said two men on the board there "got sick early in the morning of the primary." John Dalton, now a policeman, and Leo Rail, now city milk inspector, were appointed in their places, the witness said. Then, he said, Rail told him a man wanted to see him at the door.

"The man told me that if I didn't see what was going on he would see that I got my salary. I told him I had taken an oath and would keep it. He said: 'All right, I'll stand by you. I admire your spunk.'"

Bohall said he found out later this man was "Goosie" Costello. State witnesses have testified that Costello hauled repeaters that day.

Bohall said the Republican and Progressive ballots were counted first and when it came time to count the Democratic votes dilatory tactics were adopted. At 3 a. m., he said he decided that since he had obtained leave of absence from his work for only one day, he would have to leave. The Democratic ballots were not yet counted. He said that at request of board members he signed his name to the tally sheet signifying the count had been properly made.

Elias Dulbarger a Jewish attorney who was candidate for justice of the peace at the primaries testified that the count showed he did not get a single vote in his own precinct though he voted himself. He said he had a number of affidavits to show his friends had voted for him. After much argument this evidence was ruled out.

Dulbarger said he and his friends went into the voting booth and that a poll holder said one of these men couldn't vote because "he wouldn't vote for Ed Lyons." The witness said he took this man before the board and that while they were there the poll book holder and another man appeared. He said one of these men hit his Jewish friend in the face.

"What did you do then?" asked a defense attorney.

"I left right away," said Dulbarger.

Dulbarger said his friends finally voted.

FAILS TO TAKE A SUBMARINE PLUNGE

Henry Ford, However, Inspects Under-Sea Craft and Says he Believes They Are Too Big.

CONFERS WITH REAR ADMIRAL

(By United Press.) New York, Sept. 23.—Henry Ford, automobile manufacturer, inspected the Brooklyn navy yard and the government submarines here today but did not go down in any of the under-sea craft as had been planned.

Ford reached the navy yard shortly before eleven this morning and, escorted by naval attaches, made an inspection of the laboratory and went from there where the submarines were docked. He boarded the K-1 and K-5.

"I just wanted to see what kind of a conglomeration of machinery a submarine was," said Ford as he came out. "I still think they are too large."

After his inspection Ford was closeted more than an hour with Rear Admiral Usher.

True Secret of Keeping Youthful Looking

(The Beauty Seeker.)

"The real secret of keeping young-looking and beautiful," says a well-known hygienist, "is to keep the liver and bowels normally active. Without these requisites, poisonous waste, which remains in the system, polluting the blood and lodging in various organs, tissues, joints. One becomes flabby, obese, nervous, mentally sluggish, dull-eyed, wrinkled and sallow of face."
"But to get liver and bowels working as they ought, without producing evil after-effects, has been the problem. Fortunately, there is a prescription of unquestioned merit, which may now be had in convenient tablet form. Its value is due largely to an ingredient derived from the humble May apple, or its root, which has been called 'vegetable calomel' because of its effectiveness—though of course it is not to be classed with the real calomel of mercurial origin. There is no habit-forming constituent in 'Santal' tablets—that's the name—and their use is not followed by weakness or exhaustion. On the contrary, these harmless vegetable tablets tend to impart tone and elasticity to the relaxed intestinal wall. Santal tablets, which may be procured from any druggist—a dime's worth will do—will prove a revelation to any constipated, liver-troubled person."

Chief Cause of Pimples, Blisters, Sallow Skin

(Messenger of Health.)

Unslightly eruptions, pimples, boils, blotches, sallow or muddy skin, usually are due to a sluggish liver, a constipated bowel—and a polluted blood stream as a consequence. How foolish in such cases to resort to outward applications, which can never have natural, permanent results. If more people only knew it, there is a very simple remedy, to be found in any drug store, which is as effective as it is harmless and quick acting. It is an old formula, long recognized by the medical profession, which has been put in tablet form, and at such small cost, that you now be deprived of its wonderful benefits.
"Santal tablets"—that's the name—are entirely vegetable and there's no habit-forming ingredient. You need only get about a dime's worth, and swallow one at bedtime to realize there's nothing else quite so good for the purpose. The action in the morning is so easy, so soothing, and instead of a weakening after-effect, you feel truly refreshed and invigorated. Santal tablets are not only the finest remedy known for constipation and torpid liver, but offer the sanest, most sensible treatment for complexion difficulties of the character mentioned.

Great Demand for New Constipation Remedy

They say that the advent of the "santal tablet" as a vegetable substitute for calomel has resulted in an extraordinary demand for this remarkable product. It seems to have made a hit particularly with those afflicted with chronic constipation, who were quick to recognize its advantages over calomel and the usual laxatives.
Santal tablets, aside from their efficacy, doubtless owe their success largely to a tendency to elicit in bringing about natural functioning—instead of encouraging the "cathartic habit." Also, instead of injuring the membranous lining of the organs involved, they exert a healing influence. Instead of weakening, they add tone to the intestinal wall. And they work so easily and gently, they are of course preferred on this account to the violently acting purgatives. Their inexpressiveness is another reason for the popularity of santal tablets. You need procure only a dime's worth, and take one tablet upon retiring, to be convinced that the ideal remedy for constipation, torpid liver, any evil complexion consequences, has finally been found.—Druggists Review.

Calamity Fat.

Funny, isn't it—but it's true.

This country is becoming calamity fat.

When the European war broke out the United States was in the throes of financial and commercial depression. The dollar was becoming scarcer and hard to find and harder to keep.

All Europe seemed in a conspiracy to flood our markets with foreign made goods at prices below the point at which they can be manufactured in America.

Factories were beginning to close, construction work diminished, bankers became over conservative, men and women were losing their employment, people with money commenced to withdraw it from circulation and hoard it up, and then—
THE WAR!

Hard times ensued for awhile, but soon commenced to subside.

With half the world in a wild and savage orgy of blood America found little time to think of her internal troubles.

The mind of all humanity was focussed upon the appalling destruction of life and property abroad, upon the crucifixion of civilization.

and the shattering of the hopes of universal peace.

The American toboggan slide was brought to an abrupt halt.

The markets of the belligerent countries were opened up to us, and insistent calls were made for the goods that they could no longer make.

Then the wail came from other and neutral countries, and everywhere the cry was, "We want goods!"

The tide turned—the toboggan was kicked into the discard, and the American mind turned to the more profitable subject of supply and demand.

Prosperity is on the rebound.

The war is the greatest calamity of the world, yet it is flooding America with untold opportunities.

It is destroying the commerce of half the peoples of the earth, and yet on the crest of the blood stained waves of disaster American rides to greater wealth and financial and commercial power.

The fat of calamity comes to us!

A Gift to Japan.

The seaman's law passed by a Democratic congress is hailed by Japanese business men as a deliberate gift of a monopoly of the carrying trade on the Pacific Ocean. This view is set forth by Mr. Gisaaku Takikawa, a vice-president of the Kobe Chamber of Commerce, who is now in this country. He comments pungently on the disappearance of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. from the ocean by reason of the seaman's law; and says that this important concern should be forced out of business by American legislation, which, from a Japanese viewpoint, at least, might be expected to encourage and foster a national project, is something that an Oriental mind cannot comprehend. "You have," adds Mr. Takikawa, "by your own act made the Pacific-carrying trade a Japanese monopoly, and the shipper already is beginning to suffer from the effect which inevitably follows the creation of a monopoly. You have delivered the Pacific into the hands of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, a Japanese steamship line, and there is no competition with ships of other nations."

What a Cackle's Worth

Listen for the cackle of your hen. It has a money value to you.

The winter season is approaching, when the price of eggs will advance and the cackle will become of even greater significance to you.

Plan for the cackle, feed the hens in accordance with the demands of nature as propounded by the experts who have spent their life in the work.

If the cackle is not heard with sufficient frequency, ask yourself why. Dig down and study the subject, for the more you study the oftener the hen will cackle, and cackling means more eggs and a bigger bank account.

It is the law of nature that a hen should lay, and cackle. She should lay often and do much cackling, for that, too, is nature's law.

But she will not lay unless she receives proper food and care, and therein lies the wisdom of the man who thinks before he acts.

Get hold of some good literature, read up on the subject of egg production, apply the knowledge you thus obtain, and in the end you will learn to experience a keen delight in every cackle of your hens.

Your hen wants to cackle—she will cackle, if you give her a chance.

And there's money in the cackle of a hen.

Men's Wear, a magazine devoted to the interests of the tailors' guild, criticizes Mr. Bryan for his slovenly manner of dress. Bill has always stood for free wool, and it was largely through his influence that wool went on the free list in the Underwood tariff law. Having achieved that result, the fact that he is an a perennial state of sartorial collapse seems to be inconsistent.

COLLIDES WITH BICYCLE.

Ruell Bennett, riding a bicycle, and John Kennedy, on a motorcycle, collided in Main street near Fifth at noon today and the Bennett boy was thrown off, but not seriously hurt. Kennedy took a chance of being thrown to avoid crashing into a horse and buggy which passed just as the collision occurred. Bennett started to pass the buggy and did not see the motorcycle.

Newspaper Comment on Watson Candidacy

A Familiar Figure

(Lake County Star)

James E. Watson, of Rushville whose face is as familiar to Lake county voters as the Tin Lizzie that rambles over its highways and whose name is as common as Heinz's 57 varieties, made the announcement on Wednesday of this week at a political gathering at his old home town in Rushville that he would be a candidate for United States Senator on the Republican ticket before the primaries early next year.

Lake county has been a Watson stronghold. He should have been Governor when Tom Marshall defeated him—or rather when Gov. J. Frank Hanley turned a trick at the eleventh hour that sent "Smiling Jim" to defeat after Lake county had given him one of the greatest majorities in the state. That was the time that the "Watson day" celebration was held in Crown Point and it still holds the banner for the deluxe celebration in northern Indiana.

There was "pep" and ginger in that campaign and it was enthused by none other than James E. Watson. There is no living man in the state of Indiana who can get to the people as can the man from Rushville. The campaign goes on with a bang when he is the central figure and it never ceases until the ballots are counted.

Discussing the possibilities of Mr. Watson's candidacy, no one can deny Mr. Watson's ability as a campaigner. His acquaintance over the country of public men will be largely in his favor. He has helped many men by going into their states in their behalf. If Mr. Watson is nominated by the Republican voters for the U. S. Senate, in the election to follow Mr. Watson's admirers and friends from other states will come to help and to assist him.

With Mr. Watson an avowed candidate at this early date it looks very much as if he was out to win. There are candidates for this high position who say they are willing to wait two years. Mr. Watson is not made of that sort of metal. One thing sure about Jim Watson is that he is a fighter from start to the end. As to his ability to make speeches everybody can attest. In the chautauqua field he is regarded as good a drawing card as William J. Bryan. With his years of experience in Congress Mr. Watson will have a fund of information to unload on the people that will be of intense interest.

The coming campaign will not be one of filibuster. The people will demand facts. Conditions are far different in this country than ever before. People will gladly listen to the explanation of cause and effect. They will not be stampeded with mere bluster. They will not be carried away with the appeals of the ins who desire to stay in or the pledges of the outs who want in. Certainly Mr. Watson with his natural ability his acquired information, his skill, his wide acquaintance throughout the country with the desires, and wishes of the people fit him to go before the people in an honest way and manner to inform them of real trade and business conditions.

Mr. Watson's personal and political friends will hail his announcement with joy. He is a factor to be reckoned with. All that the people will demand of him is to come square to their rescue. In the last campaign Mr. Watson made a striking speech in which he prophesied what condition would follow the triumph of the Democratic party.

officer. He said the physicians had been negligent in this respect, presumably because they did not know that they had to make such reports. Only two cases of tuberculosis have been reported to the health board since the law became effective, Dr. Wooden said, and the patients in one of those cases is now dead.

Dr. Wooden also pointed to the fact that the law was mandatory as respects the duties of the health officials. It is imperative that they follow out the law in every respect else they are liable to a fine not lower than ten dollars and not more than fifty dollars on conviction of violation of any provisions of the act.

Dr. Wooden said in one instance the family had fumigated the house after a death from tuberculosis and had moved before he had prepared to use the disinfectant as provided by the law. Although the law does not say so, Dr. Wooden says the spirit of it is that the disinfecting shall be done while the goods are still in the house.

But the health officer went ahead and disinfected the empty house as the law says he should do. He then told the family which had moved out how their household goods should be disinfected and he said he thought the family fumigated at its own expense.

Replying to the criticism of the tuberculosis law made by the state board of health, Dr. Wooden said he thought it was better than no tuberculosis law at all because it protected renters against houses where tuberculosis patients had lived or died.

FIFTY TEAMS OF MINERS ENTERED

Will Compete For Prizes in Contest
Demonstrating How to Save
Human Lives

BUREAU OF MINES TAKES PART

Wonderful Development in Work
Has Been Made—First Aid to be Given Consideration

(By United Press.)

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—A great national demonstration of ways of saving human lives is being made here. Fifty teams of miners from all parts of the United States are ready to compete for medals to be awarded the best work in life-saving and first-aid.

The miners in the contest were selected through state and sectional elimination competitions. The team representing the Southwestern states came to the fair on the $1,000 given as first prize at the contest held in Kansas City in July. The winners of the Southern interstate contest had their expenses defrayed in the same after a lively competition at Birmingham, Ala.

Today's program provides for contests between teams representing the same states and groups of states in the West. These teams will meet the Eastern teams tomorrow.

The U. S. Bureau of mines is taking an active part in the demonstration. In the past four years the bureau has trained 25,000 miners in rescue and first-aid work. It now has eight mine rescue cars in operation, manned by trained crews who when not actually engaged in rescue work, spend their time teaching the miners.

Operators have been spurred by the bureau stations and provide rescue cars, until there are now 70 of the former and 12 of the latter in use.

The need for such efforts is shown by the appalling death rate in the mines of this country.

In the year 1913, the last year for which statistics are available for all the mines and allied industries, 3,762 men were killed and 177,000 injured. This includes coal mines, quarries, ore-dressing plants and smelting plants.

In the last ten years, in the coal mines alone, there have been 26,000 deaths, a fatality rate of three and three-quarters men in every 1,000 employed, and more than a million men injured.

It was to reduce the death rate and lessen the number of injuries that the Federal Government early in 1908 took up its work in behalf of the miners. The first marked progress was in 1911, when the first national mine safety demonstration was held in Pittsburgh, in the presence of the President of the United States and 20,000 miners. Since that time there has been a wonderful development throughout the country in both rescue and first-aid work.

"A large proportion of the men entering the mines," said an official of the bureau, "come from the farms and villages of different European countries; they are unfamiliar with our language, our institutions, our laws, and know little or nothing of mining. A majority of the men now working in the coal mines of the United States speak and read but little English. It is therefore difficult to reach these men through publications, even when the latter are prepared in the most simple and elementary manner.

"No one likes to estimate the money value of a human life, but at times it becomes necessary to do this, especially in working out the economics of compensation acts. It is a reasonable estimate that during the past ten years more than 30,000 men have been killed in connection with the accidents in the mining industries of this country. It is impossible to estimate the number of injured or who have suffered from bad health conditions. It is impossible to estimate the number of men with health shattered through these conditions who have had to give up their work years before their natu-

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

We have faith in our ability as rational designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer, Mr. A. H. Schrichte. J. B. SCHRICHTE SONS MONUMENTS 117-121 S. MAIN ST.

REAL TRUTH OF GERMAN NOTE

"Great Diplomatic Victory" of President Was All Bosh as Nothing Was Gained

TOLD TO GO TO THE HAGUE

Makes no Disavowal, Express Regret And Emphatically Refuses Reparation—Used Wrong Foot

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Washington, Sept. 23.—The complete text of the German note on the "Arabie" incident has reached here, and the "great diplomatic victory" which the Wilson administration has been claiming may now be seen in its real proportions.

Germany makes no disavowal of the deed, contends that the ship was sunk in self-defense, expresses regret that American lives were lost, emphatically refuses reparation, and finally tells Mr. Wilson that he may take his grievances and go to—The Hague.

There is no expectation here that this sardonic communication will be rejected. The Administration has so strenuously hailed the German position as a "diplomatic triumph" that it can hardly repudiate itself now. The fact is that America has gained nothing whatever from Germany despite the flowing rhetoric which has been streaming from the White House to Berlin. The Germans have not modified their undersea warfare to any appreciable extent; they have merely formulated a set of excuses which the Wilson Administration will have to accept, no matter how hollow they may be.

The truth is that the Administration got off on wrong foot in these negotiations with Germany. The President's frenzy for words without realizing their diplomatic import led him to employ what jurists call "deliberately unfriendly act" are phrases of this character—but the President did not know it. The now famous, or rather, notorious, "M. P." interview made that plain. A nation using such phrases must stand ready to make them good in action by war, if necessary—or must eat humble pie.

Now, the President has never dreamed of going to war. He is afraid of Germany and he thinks the country is afraid of Germany, too. He will accept anything that will enable him to claim even a show of success. His motto is: "Any port in a storm." Accordingly, some formula will be devised to help him swallow the latest German note; and he will hope that the people will forget the incident—or at least that they will come to regard it in the light of fictitious glory which the Administration press will seek to cast upon it.

But the people will not forget. They will remember that this President lectured the Germans as if they were a lot of college freshmen and that his bluff was called.

WATCH DEFECTS IN FLUES

Fire Officials Say Now is Time For Danger From That Source.

This is the season when defects in flues should be corrected. Flues should be inspected at least once before cold weather sets in. Deputies from the fire marshals office are discovering the defects in flues frequently where none was suspected. Defective flues caused a fire loss of $719,921 in 1914. They are more prolific of fires than any other cause except sparks from chimneys.

WATSON GIVEN A MIGHTY OVATION

picture will be placed in the hall when the Democrats have their convention in 1916.

At the morning program the speakers who preceded him devoted their remarks to the Columbia club's history and the financial stress through which it passed, but Watson, in a thirty-minute speech told why it was appropriate for the Republicans of Indiana to celebrate emancipation day, which was fifty-three years ago yesterday.

He dwelt on the fact Lincoln lived in Indiana sixteen years and should be signally honored by Indiana almost as if he were a native son. He also recalled how many of Indiana's sons gave up their lives and how many underwent the hardships of war to deliver the black man from bondage.

There were several Republicans from Rush county present, but no extended effort was made to take up a big delegation from Rush county because of the work entailed last week in preparing the ox roast here.

One of the developments of the state-wide meeting was the announcement of Hugh Th. Miller of Columbus that he will again seek the Republican nomination for United States senator. He was the candidate two years ago. He had never let it be known what he would do until yesterday.

The crowd yesterday was estimated at 20,000 persons. They were served with "bargoo" and bread. Every county in the state was represented, many of them bringing big delegations and bands to boom their respective candidates.

BIG MISSIONARY CAMPAIGN TO START

Conventions Will be Held in Seventy-Five Cities and Thirty-Seven States in October

EDUCATIONAL IN NATURE

(By United Press.)

Washington, Sept. 23.—A nationwide missionary campaign to start next October is being planned by the directors and laymen of the missionary movement in the various churches of the United States. The campaign will include conventions to be held in 75 cities of 37 states and the District of Columbia, and will end with a national missionary congress here April 26 to 30, 1916.

The number of registered delegates is expected to exceed 150,000 and 40,000 churches are to be invited to send representatives. In most of the large cities convention committees have been organized and plans for a campaign of education which will last two months are being made by the laymen.

The local convention is scheduled to come about the middle of the campaign. It is proposed to make no financial appeals during the campaign but directors expect that contributions to missions and church work will be greatly increased as a result of the activities.

In New England the following cities will hold conventions, Boston, Worcester, Mass., Portland, Me., Manchester, N. H., and Waterbury, Conn. Arrangements to participate in the campaign are also being made by Seattle, San Francisco, Buffalo, Denver, Tacoma, and Chicago, among others.

A SILENT WEDDING

(By United Press.)

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 23.—William R. Lyons and Mary Henderson presenting themselves to be married by Court Commissioner Bates, said not a word. Neither did Bates, who sat down at a typewriter and typed the wedding ceremony. Spaces were left for the bride and groom who filled in their part of the ceremony. Then Bates wrote at the bottom of the peculiar document, "I pronounce you man and wife." (Mr. and Mrs. Lyons are deaf mutes, from Fairbault, Minn.)

EFFECT OF FROST BEGINS TO SHOW

Vegetation is Beginning to Wilt and Golden Hues of Fall Are Beginning to Appear.

INDIAN SUMMER APPROACHES

Season For Stocking up Coal Bin and Putting Stoves and Furnaces in Condition Arrives.

Continued frosts are going to leave visible results of their devastation. This is asserted by many who pointed out this morning that vegetation was beginning to show the effects of frost after two nights of it. Many also ridicule the idea that frost will do no damage in the light of the moon.

It is stated that the frosts have not yet been heavy enough to cause any appreciable damage to crops, but they have been severe enough to begin to brown the corn and tint the leaves of trees to the beautiful hues that make the fall season so beautiful to the lovers of nature.

Although the weather man Wednesday promised warmer weather last night, the temperature this morning was just as low as yesterday morning and the crimp atmosphere sent the shivers up one's back in the same old fashion.

The season of stocking coal bins and the conditioning of furnaces and stoves is at hand and the householder, as a general class, is busier than he would be of choice.

Preparations for winter are making, and in them it is urged by the fire department that safety be considered first, and all the time. That old and leaky flues are dangerous, and that cracked and unsteady stoves are equally dangerous, are facts painfully plain from any list of causes of fires. A little apart from these platitudes, but near enough to deserve attention in the same treatment, is the warning of coal dealers great and small, that coal bought now will cost less, come more promptly and be decidedly more convenient than later orders.

Passing the preparations for the season of chill nights and crystal clear days, it is admittedly one of the loveliest seasons of earth. Last night was a splendid night. For the next four weeks, perhaps for longer, the prevailing weather may be expected to be clear for the most part, save for occasional settlements of light have, typical of the Indian Summer of story and song. It is not mere sentiment which surrounds this season with devotion. Men of all walks regard it much the same. This time it is beginning her with the public health in fine condition and the temporal blessings of this quarter of the earth so plain as to make the neglect of the grandeurs of the season a kind of wrong.

FOR SELLING A QUART WHISKEY

Paul H. McConnell, Proprietor of
Court House Drug Store, is
Arrested Today on Affidavit

SIGNED BY ISAAC MESSMORE

Messmore Drinks Whole Quart And
Causes Disturbance at Manilla
Sheriff Cavitt Called

Paul H. (Doc) McConnell, proprietor of the court house drug store, was arrested today on a charge of selling liquor illegally. The affidavit was signed by Isaac Messmore of Manilla and was filed in the circuit court.

McConnell was arrested on charges of a similar nature several months ago and the cases came to trial last June but one did not stick and the second was dismissed.

It is charged that McConnell sold Messmore, who is given to becoming intoxicated, a quart of whiskey Tuesday evening. Messmore drank the whole quart and went home.

He created a disturbance at home by brandishing knives and threatening his family, which resulted, in Sheriff Cavitt being called. The sheriff arrested Messmore and Wednesday evening Messmore pleaded guilty to the charge of public intoxication in the city court and was fined $1 and costs, amounting in all to $11, which he paid.

Prosecutor Stevens visited Messmore at the jail yesterday and Messmore stated readily that he had purchased a quart of whiskey at the Court House drug store. Messmore told the prosecutor that he did not know McConnell and that McConnell did not know him, and that he did not sign any statement that he wanted the whiskey for medical purposes.

Messmore got half the people out on the streets by his trouble-making Tuesday night, it is stated. He ran his wife and son-in-law, Ezra Baker and Baker's wife out of his home by threats and flourishing knives as if he would carry out the threats.

McConnell was arrested on two different charges for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquor last spring. The first case came to trial June 21, 1915, according to the criminal docket, and because of the failure of the evidence, the court withdrew the case from the jury and found the defendant not guilty. A man said to be a Muncie, Ind., traveling salesman was the prosecuting witness in the case.

One June 30, 1915, the second case against McConnell was dismissed on the motion of Prosecutor Stevens for the lack of evidence.

CLARKSBURG WOMAN DIES

Mrs. Lula Davis, aged 46, died today at noon at her home in Clarksburg. Her death was caused by meningitis, from which she had suffered for several weeks. The funeral arrangements had not been completed late this afternoon.

B. F. Miller was appointed guardian today for Howard Overese, when it was shown he was a minor. Overese is the defendant in the partition suit brought by Elizabeth Overese and others.

This will be the largest political meeting held in the north part of the state since the last campaign.

SECOND TRIAL OF HARWICK SUIT ON

Widow of Man Killed Near Here by
Interurban Seek Damages After Two Suits Failed

ONE LOST; OTHER WITHDRAWN

The second of the case in which Mrs. Joseph Harwick, whose husband was killed by an interurban car east of here in 1912, is seeking damages from the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company, is being held in the Morgan circuit court at Martinsville. The widow first filed suit in the Rush circuit court, but it was withdrawn and never allowed to come to trial by the plaintiff. Later Mrs. Harwick moved to Indianapolis and a similar suit was brought and tried before Judge Orison. The court gave the jury pre-emptory instructions to find for the traction company, which the jury did and the case was thrown out.

However, attorneys for the plaintiff filed an affidavit that they had uncovered new evidence and asserted that they had a new material witness, and were granted a new trial. The case was sent to Morgan county on a change of venue. It developed yesterday that James Yazel of this city was the new plaintiff's witness, but it is said he made an excellent witness for the defense because he testified he saw Clifford Jarvis of this city at the scene of the accident with a lantern. The defense contended Jarvis was seated on the front end of a coal car being pushed by a freight car and held a lantern and that Harwick should have seen it.

GERMANY MAKES A FEW CONCESSIONS

Consents to Arbitration of Frye
Case Involving Attacks on Conditional Contraband.

ADMIT NO TREATY VIOLATION

(By United Press.)
Washington, Sept. 23.—Germany made concessions regarding attacks on American ships carrying conditional contraband in a note bearing on the William P. Frye case received from Berlin and made public today by the state department.

The German government consents to arbitration of the loss of the Frye and names experts to reach an agreement as to the pecuniary loss, but does not acknowledge that any treaty was violated in the sinking of the Frye. The note suggests settlement of this disputed point by Hague arbitration.

WATSON GIVEN A SAYS SIMILAR MIGHTY OVATION CLAIMS PASSED

After Speaking in Morning at State
Love Feast, he is Called Back
by Crowd in Afternoon.

TALKS ON EMANCIPATION DAY IN TUBERCULOSIS CASES

Local Republicans Attending Say
People Who Attended Ox Roast
Here Still Comemtn on it.

Republicans from here at the state-wide Republican love feast at the state fair grounds Wednesday reported that the Republicans from all over the state were still talking about the ox roast here a week ago Wednesday. The general impression has gone broadcast throughout the state that a crowd was never handled better and was never served with more care than the one at Rushville.

Another feature of the meeting in Indianapolis was the remarkable ovation given James E. Watson, of this city, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

Mr. Watson was the last speaker on the morning program before all of the crowd had arrived. When he arose to speak, the immense crowd likewise arose as one man and cheered him for several minutes.

When he had appeared on the program in the morning, it was naturally understood that he would not be introduced in the afternoon along with other candidates because there were so many and the time was limited.

Directly after the "burgoo" feast at noon, State Chairman Will H. Hays, the permanent chairman of the meeting, spoke and was followed by Paul P. Haynes of Anderson, former secretary of the Progressive state committee, and Oswald Ryan of Anderson, formerly identified with the Progressive organization in the eighth district.

Chairman Hays then began introducing candidates. Those for governor were first and those for senator next. All during the afternoon, say local Republicans who were there, were repeated calls for Watson from the crowd. When William L. Taylor concluded his speech, the crowd took up the call for Watson. Even while the candidate for governor was speaking the meeting was interrupted by Watson enthusiasts and Chairman Hays, after the uproar had subsided, said that the program had been made out by the Columbia Club and would have to be followed.

The calls for Watson became so insistent after Taylor's speech that Chairman Hays asked if Watson was in the audience. He had not been on the stage all afternoon. He was finally found back of the stage out of sight of the audience and when he appeared, he was given another mighty ovation.

In a brief speech Watson declared the men who support the Republican party do so because they believe the party to be right, and because they believe the Democratic party to be wrong. He declared that the Democratic party means to begin favor of a protective tariff and to be in favor of a merchant marine and sound mind.

He declared that the Democratic party leaders "believe on thing one year and another thing another year." Watson reviewed the Democratic party's advocacy of numerous reforms, all of which dwindled from time to time until now there is nothing on which the party can stand for a party slogan. He declared that Brown has been alloted credit and has been "under the shadow" of the health officer.

MAY JOIN ORGANIZED LABOR

(By United Press.)
Chicago, Sept. 23.—Judge John O'Connor today issued to the Chicago Teachers Federation an injunction restraining the board of education from putting into effect its recently adopted rule whereby teachers were forbidden membership in any organization affiliated with organized labor. An appeal will be taken, it was said.

BOY SUCCEUMS TO BLOOD POISONING

George Stamm, Age Nine Years, Expires at Sanatorium Here Result of Accident.

WAS RUN OVER BY A BICYCLE

Master George Stamm, age nine years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stamm of Glenwood, died at the Sexton sanatorium this morning of blood poisoning developing from an accident when he was run over by a bicycle.

His knee was badly injured and when signs of blood poisoning were seen, he was brought to the sanatorium, but little hope was ever held out for the boy's recovery. The body was removed to the parents' home today from Wyatt's undertaking establishment and the funeral will be held in the Glenwood Methodist church Saturday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock, conducted by the church pastor, the Rev. Daniel Ryan.

Besides his parents, the youth is survived by five brothers and his grandparents. He is also survived by a great grandmother, Mrs. Bart, of Tipton, Ind.

The boy was recovering from the injury when he rode a horse and the wound was opened again. The accident happened about six weeks ago and he was removed to the sanatorium here about two weeks ago.

CARTHAGE PLANT SELLS FOR $60,000

Receiver Edgar N. Hill Files Final
Report in Circuit Court—R. N.
Hill, Trustee, Purchaser.

DAVIS CASE ENDS SUDDENLY

The Carthage plant of the United State Board and Paper company has been sold to Rowland H. Hill, trustee of Carthage, for $60,000, according to the final report of the receiver, Edgar N. Hill, former manager of the plant, which has been made a matter of record in the circuit court here. The receiver was appointed last spring on the petition of the Central Savings bank.

The report shows the appraised price was $57,600 and that the price paid by R. N. Hill, trustee, was the highest bid and was in excess of the appraised value. The sale included all real estate and personal property belonging to the corporation except the cash on hand and account and bills receivable.

The case of John S. Davis for breach of warranty against Edgar and Rosa McFitch, Villard and Anna E. Amos and Homer and Fannie Powell came to a sudden termination this afternoon when it was dismissed by the plaintiff at his costs. The suit started this morning and was being heard by a jury.

WATCHED COUNT ALL NIGHT LONG

E. H. Foullois, Cripple, Says Ballots
Did Not Agree With Tallies and
He Demanded Recount.

PROGRESSIVE CLERK TALKS

Says he Was Told If he Did Not
See What Was Going on he
Would Get Paid—Bell Trial.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 23.—How a cripple stayed up all night watching the primary returns in the seventh precinct of the tenth ward rather than allow a fraudulent count was told on the witness stand in the election conspiracy trial of Mayor Bell today by Edwin Henry Foullois.

The witness, age fifty-four, appeared much older. He walked with a cane. His evidence was given in positive tones.

"After about 100 Democratic tallies had been made for the county treasurer returns, I wanted to be convinced the count was fair and I made them count the ballots. When I found the ballots did not agree with the tallies I put the ballots back in the box and stayed with the box all night," declared Foullois. "In the morning when a man came whom I knew I sent him for the election commissioners and a thorough count was made."

Foullois was not cross-examined.

Edgar T. Bohall, a Progressive clerk in the tenth ward of the thirteenth precinct, said two men on the board there "got sick early in the morning of the primary." John Dalton, now a policeman, and Leo Rail now city milk inspector were appointed in their places, the witness said. Then, he said, Rail told him a man wanted to see him at the door.

"The man told me that if I didn't see what was going on he would see that I got my salary. I told him I had taken an oath and would keep it. He said: 'All right, I'll stand by you. I admire your spunk.'"

Bohall said he found out later this man was "Goosie" Costello. State witnesses have testified that Costello handled repeaters that day.

Bohall said the Republican and Progressive ballots were counted first and when it came time to count the Democratic votes dilatory tactics were adopted. At 3 a. m., he said he decided that since he had obtained leave of absence from his work for only one day, he would have to leave. The Democratic ballots were not yet counted. He said that at request of board members he signed his name to the tally sheet signifying the count had been properly made.

Elias Dulbarger a Jewish attorney who was candidate for justice of the peace at the primaries testified that the count showed he did not get a single vote in his own precinct though he voted himself. He said he had a number of affidavits to show his friends had voted for him. After much argument this evidence was ruled out.

Dalbarger said he and his friends went into the voting booth and that a poll holder said one of these men couldn't vote because "he wouldn't vote for Ed Lyons." The witness said he took this man before the board and that while they were there the poll book holder and another man appeared. He said one of these men hit his Jewish friend in the face.

"What did you do then?" asked a defense attorney.

"I left them away," said Dalbarger.

Dalbarger said his friends finally voted.

FAILS TO TAKE A SUBMARINE PLUNGE

Henry Ford, However, Inspects Under-Sea Craft and Says he Believes They Are Too Big.

CONFERS WITH REAR ADMIRAL

(By United Press.)
New York, Sept. 23.—Henry Ford, automobile manufacturer, inspected the Brooklyn navy yard and the government submarines here today but did not go down in any of the under-sea craft as had been planned.

Ford reached the navy yard shortly before eleven this morning and, escorted by naval attaches, made an inspection of the laboratory and went from there where the submarines were docked. He boarded the K-1 and K-5.

"I just wanted to see what kind of a combination of machinery a submarine would have," said Ford as he came out. "I don't think they are so bad."

After his inspection, Ford was escorted through the group with Rear Admiral Fisher.

True Secret of Keeping Youthful Looking

(One Beauty Seeks Another.)
The real secret of keeping young looking is to keep the liver and bowels normally active. Without these qualities, no woman can expect to maintain the system, keep the blood pure and the various organs, tissues, joints. One becomes flabby, obese, nervous, mentally sluggish, dull-eyed, with a sickly, yellowish, and bowels working as they ought, without producing evil after-effects, has been the problem. For instance, there is a popular opinion that constipation is a sign of old age, but it is due largely to an inefficient derived from the humble laxative, or the "pills" which are not really laxatives, but are because of their effectiveness, thought of course it is not to be classed with the real laxative for medicinal purposes. It is no habit-forming constituent in "Santal" tablets, that's the name, and their use is not followed by weakness or exhaustion. On the contrary, these tablets give the system a new impetus, a new vitality, to the relaxed intestinal wall. "Santal" tablets, which may be procured from any druggist, are a fact worth will do much to keep the blood pure, and the system in a normal state, even the most constipated, liver-troubled person.

Chief Cause of Pimples, Blotches, Sallow Skin

(Messenger of Health.)
Unsightly eruptions, pimples, boils, blotches, sallowness, and sallow skin, usually are due to a sluggish liver, a constipated bowel, and a polluted blood stream as a consequence. How foolish in such cases to resort to outward applications, which can never have natural, permanent results. If more people only knew it, there is a very simple remedy, to be found in "Santal" tablets, which are as effective as it is harmless and quick acting. It is an old formula, long recognized by the medical profession, which has been put in tablet form, and is such a small, compact, and easy to carry, it is a wonderful benefit.

"Santal" tablets—that's the name—are entirely vegetable. There's no artificial coloring ingredient. You need only get about a dime's worth, and swallow one at bedtime to realize there's nothing else quite so good and so easy, so soothing, and instead of a weakening after-effect you feel truly refreshed and invigorated. "Santal" tablets, known for constipation and torpid liver, but offer the sanest, most sensible treatment for complexion difficulties of the character mentioned.

Great Demand for New Constipation Remedy

They say that the advent of the "Santal" tablet as a reliable substitute for calomel has resulted in an extraordinary demand for this remarkable product. It seems to have made a host of formerly chronic constipation, who were quick to recognize its advantages over calomel and the usual laxatives.

"Santal" tablets, aside from their efficacy, doubtless owe their success largely to a tendency to aid in bringing about natural functioning. Instead of encouraging the habit of "forcing" the bowels, or of injuring the membranous lining of the organs involved, they exert a healing influence. Instead of weakening, they come to the interior wall, for constipation work so easily and gently, they are of course, preferred on this account to the violently acting purgatives. Their advantages are many, and the reason for the popularity of "Santal" tablets. One need procure only a dime's worth, and take one tablet upon retiring, to be convinced that the best remedy for constipation, torpid liver, and their many evil consequences, has finally been found. "Santal" tablets. Review.

Calamity Fat

Funny, isn't it—but it's true.
This country is becoming calamity fat.

When the European war broke out the United States was in the throes of financial and commercial depression. The dollar was becoming scarcer and hard to find and harder to keep.

All Europe seemed in a conspiracy to flood our markets with foreign made goods at prices below the point at which they can be manufactured in America.

Factories were beginning to close, construction work diminished, bankers became over conservative, men and women were losing their employment, people with money commenced to withdraw it from circulation and hoard it up; and then—

THE WAR!

Hard times ensued for awhile, but soon commenced to subside.

With half the world in a wild and savage orgy of blood America found little time to think of her internal troubles.

The mind of all humanity was focussed upon the appalling destruction of life and property abroad, upon the crucifixion of civilization,

and the shattering of the hopes of universal peace.

The American toboggan slide was brought to an abrupt halt.

The markets of the belligerent countries were opened up to us, and insistent calls were made for the goods that they could no longer make.

Then the wail came from other and neutral countries and everywhere the cry was, "We want goods!"

The tide turned—the toboggan was kicked into the discard, and the American mind turned to the more profitable subject of supply and demand.

Prosperity is on the rebound.

The war is the greatest calamity of the world, yet it is flooding America with untold opportunities.

It is destroying the commerce of half the peoples of the earth, and yet on the crest of the blood stained waves of disaster American rides to greater wealth and financial and commercial power.

The fat of calamity comes to us!

A Gift to Japan.

The seaman's law passed by a Democratic congress is hailed by Japanese business men as a deliberate gift of a monopoly of the carrying trade on the Pacific Ocean.

This view is set forth by Mr. Gisaaku Takikawa, a vice-president of the Kobe Chamber of Commerce, who is now in this country. He comments pungently on the disappearance of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. from the ocean by reason of the seaman's law; and says that this important concern should be forced out of business by American legislation, which, from a Japanese viewpoint, at least, might be expected to encourage and foster a national project, is something that an Oriental mind cannot comprehend. "You have," adds Mr. Takikawa, "by your own act made the Pacific carrying trade a Japanese monopoly, and the shipper already is beginning to suffer from the effect which inevitably follows the creation of a monopoly. You have delivered the Pacific into the hands of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, a Japanese steamship line, and there is no competition with ships of other nations."

What a Cackle's Worth

Listen for the cackle of your hen. It has a money value to you.

The winter season is approaching, when the price of eggs will advance and the cackle will become of even greater significance to you.

Plan for the cackle, feed the hens in accordance with the demands of nature as propounded by the experts who have spent their life in the work.

If the cackle is not heard with sufficient frequency, ask yourself why. Dig down and study the subject, for the more you study the oftener the hen will cackle, and cackling means more eggs and a bigger bank account.

It is the law of nature that a hen should lay, and cackle. She should lay often and do much cackling, for that, too, is nature's law.

But she will not lay unless she receives proper food and care, and therein lies the wisdom of the man who thinks before he acts.

Get hold of some good literature, read up on the subject of egg production, apply the knowledge you thus obtain, and in the end you will learn to experience a keen delight in every cackle of your hens.

Your hen wants to cackle—she will cackle, if you give her a chance. And there's money in the cackle of a hen.

Men's Wear, a magazine devoted to the interests of the tailors' guild, criticizes Mr. Bryan for his slovenly manner of dress. Bill has always stood for free wool, and it was largely through his influence that wool went on the free list in the Underwood tariff law. Having achieved that result, the fact that he is in a perennial state of sartorial collapse seems to be inconsistent.

COLLIDES WITH BICYCLE

Ruell Bennett, riding a bicycle, and John Kennedy, on a motorcycle, collided in Main street near Fifth at noon today and the Bennett boy was thrown off, but not seriously hurt. Kennedy took a chance of being thrown to avoid crashing into a car and buggy which passed just as the collision occurred. Bennett tried to pass the buggy and did not see the motor car.

Newspaper Comment on Watson Candidacy

A Familiar Figure

(Lake County Star)

James E. Watson of Rushville whose face is as familiar to Lake county voters as the Tin Lizzie that rambles over its highways and whose name is as common as Heinz's 57 varieties, made the announcement on Wednesday of this week at a political gathering at his old home town in Rushville that he would be a candidate for United States Senator on the Republican ticket before the primaries early next year.

Lake county has been a Watson stronghold. He should have been Governor when Tom Marshall defeated him—or rather when Gov. J. Frank Hanley turned a trick at the eleventh hour that sent "Smiling Jim" to defeat after Lake county had given him one of the greatest majorities in the state. That was the time that the "Watson day" celebration was held in Crown Point and it still holds the banner for the deluxe celebration in northern Indiana.

There was "pep" and ginger in that campaign and it was enthused by none other than James E. Watson. There is no living man in the state of Indiana who can get to the people as can the man from Rushville. The campaign goes on with a bang when he is the central figure and it never ceases until the ballots are counted.

Discussing the possibilities of Mr. Watson's candidacy, no one can deny Mr. Watson's ability as a campaigner. His acquaintance over the country of public men will be largely in his favor. He has helped many men by going into their states in their behalf. If Mr. Watson is nominated by the Republican voters for the U. S. Senate, in the election to follow Mr. Watson's admirers and friends from other states will come to help and to assist him.

With Mr. Watson an avowed candidate at this early date it looks very much as if he was out to win. There are candidates for this high position who say they are willing to wait two years. Mr. Watson is not made of that sort of metal. One thing sure about Jim Watson is that he is a fighter from start to the end. As to his ability to make speeches everybody can attest. In the chautauque field he is regarded as good a drawing card as William J. Bryan. With his years of experience in Congress Mr. Watson will have a fund of information to unload on the people that will be of intense interest.

The coming campaign will not be one of filibuster. The people will demand facts. Conditions are far different in this country than ever before. People will gladly listen to the explanation of cause and effect. They will not be stampeded with mere bluster. They will not be carried away with the appeals of the ins who desire to stay in or the pledges of the outs who want in. Certainly Mr. Watson with his natural ability, his acquired information, his skill, his wide acquaintance throughout the country with the desires, and wishes of the people fit him to go before the people in an honest way and manner to inform them of real trade and business conditions.

Mr. Watson's personal and political friends will hail his announcement with joy. He is a factor to be reckoned with. All that the people will demand of him is to come square to their rescue. In the last campaign Mr. Watson made a striking speech in which he prophesied what condition would follow the triumph of the Democratic party.

officer. He said the physicians had been negligent in this respect, presumably because they did not know that they had to make such reports. Only two cases of tuberculosis have been reported to the health board since the law became effective, Dr. Wooden said, and the patients in one of those cases is now dead.

Dr. Wooden also pointed to the fact that the law was mandatory as respects the duties of the health officials. It is imperative that they follow out the law in every respect else they are liable to a fine not lower than ten dollars and not more than fifty dollars on conviction of violation of any provisions of the act.

Dr. Wooden said in one instance the family had fumigated the house after a death from tuberculosis and had moved before he had prepared to use the disinfectant as provided by the law. Although the law does not say so, Dr. Wooden says the spirit of it is that the disinfecting shall be done while the goods are still in the house.

But the health officer went ahead and disinfected the empty house as the law says he should do. He then told the family which had moved out how their household goods should be disinfected and he said he thought the family fumigated at its own expense.

Replying to the criticism of the tuberculosis law made by the state board of health, Dr. Wooden said he thought it was better than the tuberculosis law at all because it protected renters against houses where tuberculosis patients had lived or died.

FIFTY TEAMS OF MINERS ENTERED

Will Compete For Prizes in Contest Demonstrating How to Save Human Lives

BUREAU OF MINES TAKES PART

Wonderful Development in Work Has Been Made—First Aid to be Given Consideration

(By United Press.) San Francisco, Sept. 23.—A great national demonstration of ways of saving human lives is being made here. Fifty teams of miners from all parts of the United States are ready to compete for medals to be awarded the best work in life-saving and first-aid.

The miners in the contest were selected through state and sectional elimination competitions. The team representing the Southwestern states came to the fair on the $1,000 given as first prize at the contest held in Kansas City in July. The winners of the Southern interstate contest had their expenses defrayed in the same manner. They will compete at Birmingham, Ala.

Today's program provides for contests between teams representing the same states and groups of states in the West. These teams will meet the Eastern teams tomorrow. The U. S. Bureau of mines is taking an active part in the demonstration. In the past four years the bureau has trained 25,000 miners in rescue and first-aid work. It now has eight mine rescue cars in operation, manned by trained crews who when not actually engaged in rescue work spend their time teaching the miners.

Operators have been spurred by such demonstrations and now there are 70 of the former and 12 of the latter in use.

The need for such efforts is shown by the appalling death rate in the mines of this country.

In the year 1913, the last year for which statistics are available for all the mines and allied industries, 3,762 men were killed and 177,000 injured. This includes coal mines, quarries, ore-dressing plants and smelting plants.

In the last ten years, in the coal mines alone, there have been 26,000 deaths, a fatality rate of three and three-quarters men in every 1,000 employed, and more than a million men injured.

It was to reduce the death rate and lessen the number of injuries that the Federal Government early in 1908 took up its work in behalf of the miners. The first marked progress was in 1911, when the first national mine safety demonstration was held in Pittsburgh, in the presence of the President of the United States and 20,000 miners. Since that time there has been a wonderful development throughout the country in both rescue and first-aid work.

"A large proportion of the men entering the mines," said an official of the bureau, "come from the farms and villages of different European countries; they are unfamiliar with our language, our institutions, our laws, and know little or nothing of mining. A majority of the men now working in the coal mines of the United States speak and read but little English. It is therefore difficult to reach these men through publications, even when the latter are prepared in the most simple and elementary manner.

"No one likes to estimate the money value of a human life, but at times it becomes necessary to do this, especially in working out the economies of compensation acts. It is a reasonable estimate that during the past ten years more than 30,000 men have been killed in connection with the accidents in the mining industries of this country. It is impossible to estimate the number of injured or who have suffered from bad health conditions. It is impossible to estimate the number of men with health shattered through these conditions who have had to give up their work years before their name

"Great Diplomatic Victory" of President Was All Bosh as Nothing Was Gained

TOLD TO GO TO THE HAGUE

Makes no Disavowal, Expresses Regret
And Emphatically Refuses Reparation—Used Wrong Foot

(Special to the Daily Republican.)

Washington, Sept. 23.—The complete text of the German note on the "Arabic" incident has reached here, and the "great diplomatic victory" which the Wilson administration has been claiming may now be seen in its real proportions.

Germany makes no disavowal of the deed, contends that the ship was sunk in self-defense, expresses regret that American lives were lost, emphatically refuses reparation, and finally tells Mr. Wilson that he may take his grievances and go to—The Hague.

There is no expectation here that this sardonic communication will be rejected. The Administration has so strenuously hailed the German position as a "diplomatic triumph" that it can hardly repudiate itself now. The fact is that America has gained nothing whatever from Germany despite the flowing rhetoric which has been streaming from the White House to Berlin. The Germans have not modified their undersea warfare to any appreciable extent; they have merely formulated a set of excuses which the Wilson Administration will have to accept, no matter how hollow they may be.

The truth is that the Administration got off on wrong foot in these negotiations with Germany. The President's frenzy for words without realizing their diplomatic import led him to employ what jurists call "fighting words" in international communications. "Strict accountability" and "deliberately unfriendly act" are phrases of this character—but the President did not know it. The now famous, or rather, notorious, "M. P." interview made that plain. A nation using such phrases must stand ready to make them good in action by war, if necessary—or must eat humble pie.

Now, the President has never dreamed of going to war. He is afraid of Germany and he thinks the country is afraid of Germany, too. He will accept anything that will enable him to claim even a show of success. His motto is: "Any port in a storm." Accordingly, some formula will be devised to help him swallow the latest German note; and he will hope that the people will forget the incident—or at least that they will come to regard it in the light of fictitious glory which the Administration press will seek to cast upon it.

But the people will not forget. They will remember that this President lectured the Germans as if they were a lot of college freshmen and that his bluff was called.

WATCH DEFECTS IN FLUES

Fire Officials Say Now is Time For Danger From That Source.

This is the season when defects in flues should be corrected. Flues should be inspected at least once before cold weather sets in. Deputies from the fire marshals office are discovering the defects in flues frequently where none was suspected. Defective flues caused a fire loss of $719,921 in 1914. They are more prolific of fires than any other cause except sparks from chimneys.

WATSON GIVEN A MIGHTY OVATION

picture will be placed in the hall when the Democrats have their convention in 1916.

At the morning program the speakers who preceded him devoted their remarks to the Columbia club's history and the financial stress through which it passed, but Watson, in a thirty-minute speech told why it was appropriate for the Republicans of Indiana to celebrate emancipation day, which was fifty-three years ago yesterday.

He dwelt on the fact Lincoln lived in Indiana sixteen years and should be signally honored by Indiana almost as if he were a native son. He also recalled how many of Indiana's sons gave up their lives and how many underwent the hardships of war to deliver the black man from bondage.

There were several Republicans from Rush county present, but no extended effort was made to take up a big delegation from Rush county because of the work entailed last week in preparing the ox roast here.

One of the developments of the state-wide meeting was the announcement of Hugh Th. Miller of Columbus that he will again seek the Republican nomination for United States senator. He was the candidate two years ago. He had never let it be known what he would do until yesterday.

The crowd yesterday was estimated at 20,000 persons. They were served with "burgoo" and bread. Every county in the state was represented, many of them bringing big delegations and bands to boom their respective candidates.

BIG MISSIONARY CAMPAIGN TO START

Conventions Will be Held in Seventy-Five Cities and Thirty-Seven States in October

EDUCATIONAL IN NATURE

(By United Press.)

Washington, Sept. 23.—A nationwide missionary campaign to start next October is being planned by the directors and laymen of the missionary movement in the various churches of the United States. The campaign will include conventions to be held in 75 cities of 37 states and the District of Columbia, and will end with a national missionary congress here April 26 to 30, 1916.

The number of registered delegates is expected to exceed 150,000 and 40,000 churches are to be invited to send representatives. In most of the large cities convention committees have been organized and plans for a campaign of education which will last two months are being made by the laymen.

The local convention is scheduled to come about the middle of the campaign. It is proposed to make no financial appeals during the campaign but directors expect that contributions to missions and church work will be greatly increased as a result of the activities.

In New England the following cities will hold conventions. Boston, Worcester, Mass., Portland, Me., Manchester, N. H., and Waterbury, Conn. Arrangements to participate in the campaign are also being made by Seattle, San Francisco, Buffalo, Denver, Tacoma, and Chicago, among others.

A SILENT WEDDING

(By United Press.)

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 23.—William R. Lyons and Mary Henderson, presenting themselves to be married by Court Commissioner Bates, said not a word. Neither did Bates, who sat down at a typewriter and typed the wedding ceremony. Spaces were left for the bride and groom who filled in their part of the ceremony. Then Bates wrote at the bottom of the peculiar document, "I pronounce you man and wife." Mr. and Mrs. Lyons were married in the morning at Fairbault, Minn.

EFFECT OF FROST BEGINS TO SHOW

Vegetation is Beginning to Wilt and Golden Hues of Fall Are Beginning to Appear.

INDIAN SUMMER APPROACHES

Season For Stocking up Coal Bins and Putting Stoves and Furnaces in Condition Arrives.

Continued frosts are going to leave visible results of their devastation. This is asserted by many who pointed out this morning that vegetation was beginning to show the effects of frost after two nights of it. Many also ridicule the idea that frost will do no damage in the light of the moon.

It is stated that the frosts have not yet been heavy enough to cause any appreciable damage to crops, but they have been severe enough to begin to brown the corn and tint the leaves of trees to the beautiful hues that make the fall season so beautiful to the lovers of nature.

Although the weather man Wednesday promised warmer weather last night, the temperature this morning was just as low as yesterday morning and the crimping atmosphere sent the shivers up one's back in the same old fashion.

The season of stocking coal bins and the conditioning of furnaces and stoves is at hand and the householder, as a general class, is busier than he would be of choice.

Preparations for winter are making, and in them it is urged by the fire department that safety be considered first, and all the time. That old and leaky flues are dangerous, and that cracked and unsteady stoves are equally dangerous, are facts painfully plain from any list of causes of fires. A little apart from these platitudes, but near enough to deserve attention in the same treatment, is the warning of coal dealers great and small, that coal bought now will cost less, come more promptly and be decidedly more convenient than later orders.

Passing the preparations for the season of chill nights and crystal clear days, it is admittedly one of the loveliest seasons of earth. Last night was a splendid night. For the next four weeks, perhaps for longer, the prevailing weather may be expected to be clear for the most part, save for occasional settlements of light have, typical of the Indian Summer of story and song. It is not mere sentiment which surrounds this season with devotion. Men of all walks regard it much the same. This time it is beginning her with the public health in fine condition and the temporal blessings of this quarter of the earth so plain as to make the neglect of the grandeur of the season a kind of wrong.
